

Aida Vindell

Aida Vindell is the Co-Legal Director at DC Volunteer Lawyers Project, an organization dedicated to training and mentoring pro bono attorneys in their representation of survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Aida has served hundreds of D.C. residents living in poverty through her work representing survivors of violence at various legal services organizations. Prior to joining the DC Volunteer Lawyers Project, Aida was a Senior Attorney at the Children's Law Center and served as a Guardian ad litem attorney for abused, abandoned, and neglected children in the District. She also served as a Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault attorney at Ayuda and worked as an associate in a private law firm in Rockville, Maryland where she practiced family law, criminal defense, immigration defense and civil rights litigation.

Aida holds a Juris Doctor from the University of the District of Columbia's David A. Clarke School of Law, a law school committed to training public interest attorneys, and a bachelor's degree in Public Administration from Florida International University. She is licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia and is a native Spanish speaker.
